

BUILDING STRONG FAMILIES FOR GOD

NOVEMBER 3

"IF HE BE SOMETHING, HE MUST BE EVERYTHING..."

"If Christ is not all to you He is nothing to you. He will never go into partnership as a part Saviour of men. If He be something He must be everything, and if He be not everything He is nothing to you."
— Charles Spurgeon

As we approach the end of another election season, we are challenged to evaluate our values and vote according to God's word.

King David often prayed for God to search his heart, to let him know if there were anything reproachful hidden within. As we consider those that we would vote to lead us, let us boldly come before the throne of grace and let God guide our choices.

Let us also be in constant prayer for those whom God will choose to lead us over the next four years. Let us humble ourselves before God's wisdom.

WELCOME!

notes

If we would only believe on the name of Jesus, repent of our sins and follow him, we would be able to go to God's Heaven.
